25X1A 4. One member of the Office of Security met with two members of the U. S. Customs Service on 25 May at the [REDACTED] on behalf of the Technical Surveillance Countermeasures Subcommittee. This meeting was held at the request of Customs Service to discuss a program of contacting manufacturers of sophisticated electronic equipment which they suspect is being shipped out of the country illegally. They hope to involve these companies in a program of contacting Customs any time they have a suspect sale of equipment. They are interested in having TSCS members input, if possible, on which companies might be of interest and any information other government agencies might have involving these companies that would make their approach easier or workable.
